

NEW PARTNERS

Kaplan & Stratton is pleased to announce the appointment of the following four new Partners with effect from 1st January 2023:

Our new partners are:

Florence Lotee
FLotee@kapstrat.com

Florence is an Advocate of the High Court of Kenya and has hitherto gained considerable experience as a Senior Associate in the Corporate Commercial department, where she continues as a Partner.

Her work encompasses property acquisitions and disposals, advising on property development and management; conducting legal due diligences and forensics; advising clients on business establishment in Kenya; reviewing and drafting an extensive range of commercial contracts; stamp duty planning. She is highly skilled in general regulatory compliance.

Rita Karau
RKarau@kapstrat.com

Rita, an Advocate of the High Court of Kenya, was formerly an Associate in the Corporate/Commercial department and is now a Partner in the same department.

Her main area of practice is property acquisition/disposal and development. She advises on a wide range of matters including business establishment in Kenya, property laws, property financing, company restructuring, stamp duty planning and general regulatory compliance.

She further advises on, reviews and drafts an extensive range of commercial contracts and related documents.

Elizabeth Onyango
EOnyango@kapstrat.com

Elizabeth becomes a Partner in the Dispute Resolution Department of the Firm, which encompasses litigation.

She is an Advocate of the High Court of Kenya, a Commissioner for Oaths and a Notary Public.

She specializes in a vast array of civil litigation covering banking and related commercial transactions, construction disputes, employment law, insurance law, medical negligence, family law and general commercial disputes.

Victor Njenga
VNjenga@kapstrat.com

Victor is now a Partner in Kaplan & Stratton's Litigation Department, where he previously served as an Associate.

He is an Advocate of the High Court of Kenya and, since his admission as such, concentrated his practice mainly to litigation, and particularly civil litigation, arbitration and mediation in the following special areas: commercial law, competition, intellectual property, employment matters, construction, administrative and public law, private and public international law claims, product liability, insolvencies and receiverships & security realization.